

Trailblazers: The New Zealand Story features the story of Roger Rawlinson, who started fishing in New Zealand's waters when he was just seventeen years old, and who has built a business based on responsibly harvesting his catch from some of the most abundant fishing grounds in the world.